Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Thro' many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

You can find out more about me and the reason for this website on my page about me. Teaching children the technical basics of music is important, of course. It is also important "and a little harder" to teach students the emotional power of music. Some songs can have effects that go beyond the notes on the page. They can evoke emotions and draw on larger traditions and memories. Amazing Grace is definitely one of these songs. This beloved hymn was a source of comfort and an expression of faith for generations. Thanks to its power and popularity, this song has been recorded and organized countless times, with all kinds of instruments, styles and different moods. There are numerous agreements for the solo solo plan and, fortunately, this means that students of any skill level can be part of the tradition. Here are only three free provisions for students of various levels.
